

Bridesmaid's Luncheon Honoring Angie Neugebauer

From left, Becky Stephenson with daughter, Angie Neugebauer

The Ossabaw Room at The Cloister was the setting for the March 27 bridesmaids' luncheon honoring Angie Stephenson Neugebauer. Angie's marriage to Kevin Keithcart was solemnized March 30 at Lovely Lane Chapel. Hostesses for the luncheon were Carole Ploeger and Bootie Wood.

Angie Neugebauer (third from left) with bridesmaids, from left, Sherry Dillard, Denise Khan and Pam Parker

From left, Angie Neugebauer with Peggy Keithcart, stepmother of the groom

From left, Becky Stephenson with hostesses Carole Ploeger and Bootie Wood

From left, Carole Ploeger, Becky Stephenson, Angie Neugebauer, Peggy Keithcart, Denise Kahn, Bootie Wood, Pam Parker and Sherry Dillard

JIAA Hosts 8th Annual Students' Art Show

The Jekyll Island Arts Association is pleased to host the Eighth Annual Glynn County High School Students' Juried Art Show. Running from April 22 - May 5 at Goodyear Cottage in Jekyll's Historic District, the exhibit will feature some of the best of our students' work. The show is open to all high school age students in Glynn County who are enrolled in a formal art program in the County's public or private schools. This year the participating schools are Glynn Academy, Frederica Academy and Brunswick High School. Cash prizes and ribbons will be awarded at this 'for exhibit only' show, with none of the artwork being for sale.

Stopping in to visit David Veater's Glynn Academy art class not only provided a glimpse of the students painting or sketching, but also a look at some of the wonderful projects that will be in the upcoming show. One eye-catching project was an array of realistic looking cardboard clothing, made using a technique called recto verso - meaning that both the front and back are realistically completed. Caitlin Barrow, a senior at Glynn Academy, likes the freedom provided to interpret set programs at her school. She says, "everyone works well together and is open to others' ideas and art interpretations."

Show coordinators for the Arts Association, Jim and Theresa LaPeau, encourage the community, the participating students, their teachers, families and friends to come and share in the excitement of a variety of mediums on display. This exhibit is always an exciting opportunity to see what these talented teens have accomplished in the past year.

Everyone is welcome to view this exhibit by our young local artists and to attend the opening reception at Goodyear on April 27 from 1-3pm. Admission is free at the gallery and the shop. Regular hours are Monday through Friday, 12:00 to 4:00pm and weekends from 10:00am to 4:00pm. Call 635-3920 for more information.

From left, Glynn Academy students Alison Prater and Emily Dunker holding realistic looking cardboard dresses they made.

Glynn Academy student Melissa Crisco holding the cardboard brown jacket she made.

Glynn Academy student Aaron Phillips working on a blue shirt.

Delicious Discoveries...

For information on advertising on this page. On St. Simons call 638-7601 or in Brunswick 265-8320

Blackwater Grill

Features traditional flavors of the Coastal South - freshly prepared dishes from kitchens up and down the southern coastline including the Tidewater, Charleston and Savannah areas and continuing all the way to New Orleans for some spicy Cajun favorites. Menu items include a Low Country Boil, Island seafood specialties, soups, gumbo and incredibly delicious Cajun Rubbed Ribs.

Open Every Evening at 5:30
Sunday's & Monday's Too!

260 Redfern Village
St. Simons Island
634-6333

Spanky's

You're never far from Spanky's two locations wherever you go in the Golden Isles. Visitors quickly discover what locals already know—Spanky's serves up the freshest of seafoods and salads for lunch and dinner. Among favorites are seafood platters, steaks and burgers. Sample their fried oysters, scallops, shrimp, Marina crab stew, pasta entrees or try great sandwiches including the soft shell crab sandwich. There's a Happy Hour weekdays (4:30-7) at both locations—overlooking the Marshes of Glynn (U.S.17) and Glynn Place Mall.

1200 Glynn Ave.,
Brunswick • 267-6100

704 Mall Blvd.,
Brunswick • 554-0222

Tailgate or Take Home

Just Git 'N Split Bar-B-Q

Lunch with us!
Mon-Fri 11am-3pm
(located in front of Bennie's Red Barn)

We Cater:

- Low Country Boils
- Fish Frys
- Oyster Roasts
- Bar-B-Ques

912-506-8003

