

Antique dealer, Lee Watson, considers us a treasure.

Lee's store, Frederica Antiques, is going on four years old. And she is looking forward to many more years in the antique business. She's looking forward to doing business for many more years with our St. Simons office, too.

Lee has both her personal and her business accounts with us. She loves the friendly atmosphere and the personal attention she gets with every visit or phone call. And those phone calls, incidentally, are answered promptly by real live people who are eager to help you.

These days that may seem a little old fashioned. But in the eyes of an antique dealer, old fashioned can be priceless.
