PATTI
FORT

Age: 29

Hometown: Brunswick

Family: father, Joe Ferrier; two brothers, Joe and Tad Ferrier

Education: Glynn Academy, B.A. in Business, Auburn University; Juris Doctorate, Georgia State College of Law

Occupation: Attorney at Ferrier and Ferrier, law partner with my Dad

Civic Activities: treasurer, Brunswick-Glynn County Bar Association; pro bono Legal Services; volunteer, High School Mock Trial Competition; past vice president, Island Square Homeowners Association; Salvation Army bell ringer; Adopt an Angel at Christmas; participant in Marty Lyons and Boys and Girls Club golf tournament fundraisers

When you were a child, what did you want to be when you grew up? Professional golfer or a lawyer

What inspires you? Seeing others persevere in the face of adversity or when time are rough.

What is your favorite quote? “Our greatest glory is not in never falling but in rising every time we fall.” – Confucious

What do you dream about? Becoming a mother.

What would your fight song be? “Eye of the Tiger” by Survivor

If you could live in any book, which would you choose? “The Great Gatsby” by F. Scott Fitzgerald

What do you regret? Not spending more time and saying more kind words to my mother before she passed away.

What personality trait do you most admire? Dependability/ reliability and sincerity and determination

What would like for the world to know about you? While I lettered in six different sports in high school, won two state golf championships and went to college at Auburn on a golf scholarship, I also did pageants. I was Glynn County’s Junior Miss and Miss Glynn Academy 1997. I played the piano for 10 years and danced for 16 years. I graduated with a 3.96 GPA from Auburn in 2001. Very well-rounded!

Age: 38

Hometown: Alma

Family: husband Clint; sons, Evan(3) and Jake (21 months); parents, Roger & Joy Boatright

Education: bachelor of business administration, University of Georgia

Occupation: district director, Georgia Department of Labor

Civic Activities: Rotary Club of Brunswick; Brunswick-Golden Isles Chamber of Commerce; Coastal Georgia Workforce Investment Board; Georgia Employer Committee; International Association of Workforce Professionals; 2008 honoree YWCA Tribute to Women Leaders

What did you want to be when you grew up? A lawyer—always had an argumentative side.

If you could retire and start a second career, what would you do? Personal chef — only if I don’t have to clean up the kitchen after myself.

What do you dream about? My children’s futures.

What is your favorite quote? Attitude is everything!

What would your fight song be? “Glory, Glory to Old Georgia”— I bleed red & black and love the state of Georgia!

If you could live in any book, which would you choose? The Bible

What makes you happy? A good book (or the opportunity to read any book) at the beach.

Most admired personality trait? Staying calm under pressure

Least admired personality trait? Chronic worrying

What would you like for the world to know about you? I’m just an ordinary wife and mother, attempting to balance a career and family. However, I do take pleasure in successfully challenging the stereotype of being a working mom outside of the home while succeeding at being a great mother to my children.
