

20
UNDER 40

ANGIE
HEYS

Age: 31

Hometown: Douglas

Family: husband, Scott; daughters, Emma and Ally

Education: Master of Accounting/B.B.A. from Georgia Southern University

Occupation: certified public accountant

Civic Activities: 2004/2005 Leadership Glynn Member; Brunswick Kiwanis Club; treasurer, Brunswick Community Concert Association and the Glynn Community Crisis Center (Amity House)

When you were a child, what did you want to be when you grew up? Veterinarian

If you could retire and start a second career, what would you do? Dietitian

What inspires you? My children.

What is your favorite quote? "Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away."

What do you dream about? The moments that have taken my breath away.

What do you put off? Yard work, particularly weeding flower beds.

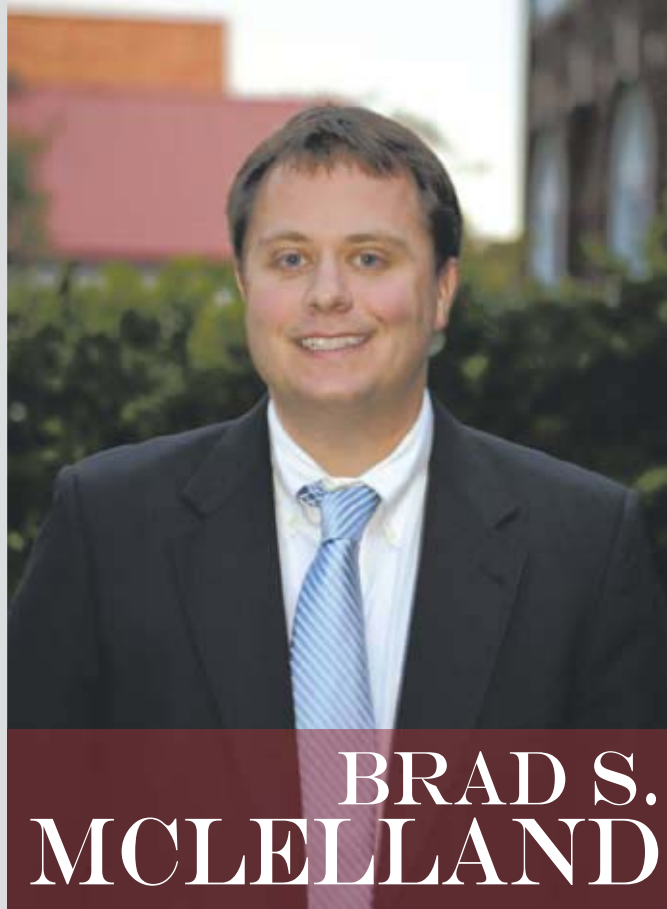

What would your fight song be? "I Will Survive" – by Gloria Gaynor

If you could live in any book, which would you choose? "Alice in Wonderland" by Lewis Carroll

What do you regret? Nothing. Every mistake I've made has made me the person I am today.

What personality trait do you least admire? Hubris

What would you like for the world to know about you? I value most the personal relationships in my life that have brought me to where I am today and continue to carry me forward.

BRAD S.
MCLELLAND

Age: 35

Hometown: Atlanta

Family: Single

Education: Auburn University, B.A. cum laude; University of Alabama, J.D. magna cum laude

Occupation: Attorney

Civic Activities: Glynn County Bar Association; attend St. Simons United Methodist Church

When you were a child, what did you want to be when you grew up? A pilot

If you could retire and start a second career, what would you do? Become a politician.

What inspires you? Devotion to family and career.

What is your favorite quote? "It is what it is."

What do you put off? Obtaining my pilot's license.

What would your fight song be? "Hate It or Love It" by 50 cent

If you could live in any book, which would you choose? "The Professor, the Banker & The Suicide King: Inside the Richest Poker Game of All Time" by Michael Craig

What do you regret? My last trip to Las Vegas.

What personality trait do you most admire? Sincerity

What personality trait do you least admire? Dishonesty

What would you like for the world to know about you? I have no real regrets.