

Altamaha River:

Nothing beats an early morning boat ride on the Altamaha River. With the winter sky arriving, expect crisp blue skies to burn the night's fog out of the air.

Catch your Own:

Living in the Golden Isles has its perks, one being the plentiful amount of fresh seafood available. The only thing better than fresh shrimp is fresh shrimp that you caught.

