

put some frosting on your plate, and stick your crackers into it, to help hold it up. Once the structures are built, use the frosting to attach any variety of decorations. You can keep this a healthier activity by choosing dry cereal (like Cheerios), raisins or other dried fruit, instead of the typical candy décor. Make just one house, or make a whole village. This is a great activity for the whole family to participate in, and can easily become a yearly tradition. Have a camera handy to take pictures of the finished creations, so they can be thoroughly enjoyed. YUM!

Variation(s): Add some food coloring to your frosting for colorful alternatives. Store-bought frosting or other frosting recipes may also be used. ■
