

Pay particular attention to the framed fashion photos that decorate the stairwell. These are mementoes of the owner's career in the fashion and cosmetics industry and his many years' association with fashion icons Halston, Borghese, Revlon and the venerable "Harper's Bazaar."

1 Sea Oats Lane
St. Simons Island

Built in 2003 as the "Coastal Living" Idea House, Keith Summerour's sophisticated yet restrained interpretation of the historic beach cottage has created a stir since day one. The simple lines of its board-and-batten construction and composite non-rusting metal roof evoke fond memories of bygone eras. Sited on the closest lot to the beach in The Villas at Coast Cottages development, the house offers a near 180 degree view of flora, sand and water.

Architect and designer worked in harmony to seamlessly blur the line between indoors and outdoors. Enjoy the magnificent view from the master bedroom and its private balcony porch. The subtle browns and blues blend in with sky and beach and make it feel like an enclosed part of the outside. Underneath the house is a hot tub and hammock. ■

The 24th Annual Cassina Garden Club Christmas Tour of Homes will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Dec. 13. The tour starts at the historic tabby cabins at Gascoigne Bluff. Proceeds will fund continued maintenance of the cabins. Advance tickets are available for purchase for $25 on St. Simons Island at Pat's Hallmark, Ace Garden Center, GJ Ford Books and St. Simons Island Drugs; and in Brunswick at Pat's Hallmark at Colonial Mall, Hattie's Books and The Market on Newcastle. Purchase tickets the day of the tour for $30.
