

Why did the chickens cross Sea Island Road? Because they could. No landmark embodied life the way it used to be on St. Simons Island better than the old Sea Island Stables. A resident flock of fowl meandered into and out of the intersection at will and always with the assurance that motorists would yield the right of way. Horses and riders did much the same on their way to tour ungated Sea Island. Those were the days.

Old Sea Island Stables

Frederica Road and Sea Island Causeway

Remember the beach all year long...

THE MARKET
ON NEWCASTLE

...with a message in a bottle.

Melissa Bagby, Proprietaire • Mons. Murphy, Chien de Maison
1624 Newcastle Street, Brunswick
912.554.7909

Worthy of your attention . . .

Worthy
Pools
& spas, inc.

Custom Gunite Pool and Spa Construction 912.638.7665
Renovations
Scheduled Maintenance 125 Gary L. Moore Court
Chemical Sales and Service St. Simons Island
Free Water Analysis
www.worthypoolsandspas.com