

Sept. 20:

Garrison Dinner at Fort King George features dishes authentic for the period and recreated debate between British officers and Spanish emissaries. Dinner and debate take place from 7-9 p.m. Ticket price is $30. Details: www.gastateparks.org/fortkinggeorge

Sept. 26:

Golden Isles Arts and Humanities Association presents Ripe for Change, a documentary about the economic and environmental implications of the world's food supply and how we can change the way it works. This is the first screening of the Southern Circuit Film Series, six-film traveling independent tour (through April 2009) with filmmakers present for audience comments and questions. 7 p.m. at the Ritz Theatre, 1530 Newcastle St., Brunswick. Admission price for film is $5, full series pass is $20. Details: www.goldenislesarts.org

Through Sept. 26:

"Succession," an exhibition by painter and printmaker Curtis Bartone, at the City of Savannah's Gallery S.P.A.C.E., 9 W. Henry St. Bartone explores in paintings, drawings and etchings the idea of "wilderness" and how it has changed from being a real place to being a memory. Gallery hours 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Free off-street parking is available. Details: www.savannahga.gov/arts.

Sept. 27:

Dances and Impressions of South America, a concert by classical guitarist Michael Nigro, featuring music of Argentina, Brazil and Venezuela. 7:30 p.m. at the Jekyll Island Club Hotel, 635 Beachview Drive, Jekyll Island. Admission price is $15. Reservations required. Details: www.jekyllclub.com

Oct. 4:

American Cancer Society 3rd Annual Victory Kids Gala at St. William's Catholic Church. Open to children 6-12 years. Details: 265-6536.

October 9-13:

The 6th Annual Georgia's Colonial Coast Birding & Nature Festival will take place October 9-13 at the Jekyll Island Convention Center. Event includes trips to Georgia's barrier islands and other natural areas, keynote speaker Pete Dunne, family activities and nature walks, seminars by field biologists, photography seminars, raptor shows, exhibitors, artists and more. Details: www.coastalgeorgiabirding.org

Oct. 24:

The American Cancer Society will present its 9th Annual Breast Cancer Fashion Show & Luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Oct. 24 at the Sea Island Club on St. Simons Island. Tickets are $50. Details: 265-7117.

Oct. 30-Nov. 1:

2008 Hilton Head Island Concours d'Elegance & Motoring Festival on Hilton Head Island and in Savannah, including a two-day exhibition of vintage race cars honoring the 100th anniversary of the Great Savannah Races, America's first grand prix road races, in Savannah Oct. 30 and 31. Details: www.hhiconcours.com

October 27-30:

The Pulitzer Legacy in Georgia

A four-day celebration of fine writing and writers presented by the University of Georgia's award-winning quarterly, The Georgia Review at the Jekyll Island Club Hotel on October 27-30. The event features four recent Pulitzer Prize winners that have an association with the state of Georgia, the University of Georgia, and/or The Georgia Review. Historian Edward Larson, journalist and historian Hank Klibanoff and poets Natasha Tretheway and Stephen Dunn will each participate in a variety of activities over the course of the week, including readings, panel discussions, question-and-answer sessions and informal gatherings with attendees.

This landmark cultural event provides an opportunity for the public to meet with these four talented and distinguished authors in a beautiful and historically relevant oceanside setting. An event ticket includes admission to all conference events, including author readings and book signings, question-and-answer sessions, most meals, Jekyll Island History tours, and tours of the Georgia Sea Turtle Center. Tickets can also be purchased for individual days. Details: www.thegeorgiareview.com.

October 17 & 18th

Brunswick
Rockin' Stewbilee

Mary Ross Waterfront Park,
Featuring
KC & The Sunshine Band

